Homily

Today is Trinity Sunday. On this feast day we profess that God is one with three persons. Our salvation lies in this profession to God the Father through Christ the Son with the Holy Spirit. When we make the sign of the cross at the beginning and end of every prayer, we profess the triune God. We ardently ask to go to God the Father, through Christ the Son in the Holy Spirit. We have to remember that becoming united with God the Father through Christ the Son in the Holy Spirit is our salvation.

God the Father is Yahweh. Yahweh is "I am who I am." He is the source of all existence and the creator. He is giver of life, and created us with love. He wants to share the triune love with us. He gave us paradise before the sin of Adam and Eve. He created the world and made it good.

God the creator does not forget to love us, even though Adam and Eve committed a sin and are doomed to die. He is merciful and generous. He always waits for us. It is because he created us and gave us life. Moses professes about God like this. "The LORD, the LORD, a merciful and gracious God, slow to anger and rich in kindness and fidelity." And he asks, "This is indeed a stiff-necked people; yet pardon our wickedness and sins, and receive us as your own." He strongly believes in the mercy of God.

God the Creator made the way to Him through Jesus His only Son. He made it possible for those who hear Jesus' teachings and follow Jesus to come to God again. He enabled people to gain life and salvation, escaping from sins and death. Those who follow Jesus and not the world can go to God. Jesus is the way, the truth, and the life. Jesus' way of the cross is the way of salvation. Jesus, through the prayer of Our Father, teaches us to ask for the name, will, and kingdom of God to be won, and to strive to enter into the Kingdom and forgive and overcome temptation and evil.

Jesus also followed the lead of the Holy Spirit. Jesus did not teach at his disposal. He was baptized by the Holy Spirit, went to the desert to be tested, and proclaimed the Kingdom of God. In the Holy Spirit, he helped the poor and the oppressed, expelled evils, and cured the sick. Likewise, the Holy Spirit helps us to go to God the Father. She helps us to overcome sin and death. This is the Holy Spirit. Jesus acted in and with the Holy Spirit.

The Holy Spirit acts in us. As in the 2nd reading, she is in our fellowship which we have. The fellowship which the Holy Spirit brings to us is not just to hang out or enjoy things. Every act which leads us to God is a true fellowship. "Mend your ways, encourage one another, agree with one another, live in peace, and the God of love and peace will be with you. Greet one another with a holy kiss."

A true fellowship starts by mending our ways. And it is to encourage one another to go to God righteously. Hence, it is to live in peace. At last, it is to know the God of love and peace.

The Triune God is the doctrine that teaches us to know God the Father, through the Son, and in the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit leads us to a true fellowship and helps us to go to God through the Son. The Son helps us to overcome sin and death through his sacrifice. The Son helps us to go to God by letting us learn from the same sacrifice. Jesus' example is the grace of God. God the Father is a loving God without end.

The Triune God is the God of love, salvation, and fellowship, who loves, saves, and leads us. Whenever we profess this Triune God, we have to remember the loving God, must not forget the God, and ask to live as the children of the God.
