Homily

Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ, Peace be with you.
Sacred Scripture teaches us five major truths. The entire message of the Bible can be summarized in these five key points: First, there is no god but the Lord our God, who brought the people of Israel out of Egypt, out of the house of slavery. There is no other god but the one who grants us eternal life. Second, God made Israel His chosen people, driving out nations greater and stronger than they, and gave them the land He had promised. In the same way, Jesus Christ proclaimed to us the Kingdom of God—the Kingdom of eternal life. Third, Israel was called to love and serve the Lord alone and to keep His commandments as a response to His grace. Likewise, the faithful must keep the new commandment given to us by Jesus Christ. Fourth, the Word of the Lord must not only be engraved in our hearts and minds, but must be taught repeatedly to our children, written on the doorposts of our homes and gates, so that all in the household may know it. The Church must proclaim the teachings of Jesus Christ, and the faithful must hand down the faith to their descendants. Fifth, if Israel listens to the Word of the Lord and puts all His commandments into practice, they will be blessed and prosper in the land. But if they fail to do so, curses will come upon them, and they will be scattered from the land. Faith without works is dead.

Today is Palm Sunday of the Lord's Passion—a day for meditating on the Way of the Cross that Jesus walked. Along this Way of the Cross, there were two kinds of people. First, those who caused Jesus pain. Among them was Judas, who betrayed Jesus for thirty pieces of silver—like seed sown along the path that could not take root and withered away. Though he heard the words of Jesus, he easily changed his heart when temptation came. There are those today who, though baptized, soon become indifferent in their faith—betraying Jesus out of greed, inferiority, or pride. There was also Peter, who denied Jesus three times. He was like the seed sown among thorns: it takes root but bears no fruit because it is choked by the thorns. Though Peter had become a disciple after hearing Jesus' words, he faltered in the time of trial and denied Him at the decisive moment. As the saying goes, only pine and cedar trees stay green in the cold, snowy winter. Though Peter once said he would follow Jesus even into hell, fear made him deny even knowing the Lord. And there were the crowds who shouted, "Crucify Him!"—people who ignored the suffering of the poor, the hungry, and the naked around them.

The second kind were those who comforted Jesus. Along His Way of the Cross, there were those who brought Him consolation. There was His mother, the Blessed Virgin Mary. While all the disciples fled, she stayed with Jesus until the end of His Passion. There was Simon of Cyrene, who helped carry Jesus' Cross. Because of him, Jesus could rest for a moment under the weight of the Cross. There was Veronica, who wiped the blood and sweat from Jesus' face with her veil. There were the women of Jerusalem, who wept for Jesus along the road, and to whom He offered words of comfort. There was the woman who touched the hem of His garment and was healed of her bleeding. The mother of the girl whom Jesus raised from the dead with the words, "Little girl, arise." The Syrophoenician woman, a foreigner, whose faith Jesus praised. The woman forgiven by Jesus who found a new life. The woman who anointed His feet with precious perfume. And the repentant thief crucified beside Jesus, who cried out for mercy. To him, Jesus said, "Today you will be with me in Paradise." Scripture shares their stories with us as well.

Today is Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord. Let us reflect on which side we find ourselves. Were we among the crowds who cried out, "Crucify Him"? Were we like Judas, who sold Jesus for silver? Like Peter, who denied Him three times? Have we turned away from Jesus to preserve our own status or protect our power? Or were we like Simon of Cyrene, who carried the Cross with Jesus? Like Veronica, who wiped His suffering face? Like Joseph of Arimathea, a disciple who even took part in Jesus' burial? If we are among those who comforted Jesus, He will surely say to us: "You will be with me in Paradise." The Kingdom of God that Jesus proclaimed did not end with death on the Cross. As Saint Paul proclaims today: "He humbled Himself, becoming obedient to death, even death on a cross. Because of this, God greatly exalted Him and bestowed on Him the name that is above every name, so that at the name of Jesus every knee should bend and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father."

Today is Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord. If our faith has resembled that of Judas or Peter, may it now become like that of Simon of Cyrene or Veronica. The choice is ours. And how beautiful it would be if the Risen Lord could say to us: "You have chosen the better part." "Christ became obedient for us unto death, even death on a Cross. Therefore God exalted Him and gave Him the name that is above every name."
