Homily

Today is the feast of the Transfiguration of the Lord, as well as the 18th Sunday in Ordinary Time. Jesus shows his holiness to Peter, James, and John. This holiness means that Jesus is the beloved son of God, who is full of the glory of God. And his holiness is also shown by being with Moses and Elijah. After Peter, James, and John experience Jesus' death and resurrection, they see Jesus enter into the glory of God so that they can proclaim Jesus. Jesus' transfiguration, filled with the glory of God, lets us—and the disciples, of course—follow Jesus to the end beyond fear.

Daniel, through his vision, prophesies a Son of man who sits at the right hand of God. He prophesies that all authority, glory, and nations are given to the Son. "One like a Son of man coming, on the clouds of heaven; When he reached the Ancient One and was presented before him, the one like a Son of man received dominion, glory, and kingship; all peoples, nations, and languages serve him. His dominion is an everlasting dominion that shall not be taken away, his kingship shall not be destroyed."

Peter proclaims that all the honor and glory of God is given to the beloved Son of God. The honor and glory of God is only given to His Beloved Son. Jesus is that very beloved Son of God. Hence, Peter invites us to be attentive to Jesus' words and follow him.

"He received honor and glory from God the Father when that unique declaration came to him from the majestic glory, 'This is my Son, my beloved, with whom I am well pleased.' We ourselves heard this voice come from heaven while we were with him on the holy mountain. Moreover, we possess the prophetic message that is altogether reliable. You will do well to be attentive to it, as to a lamp shining in a dark place, until day dawns and the morning star rises in your hearts."

Jesus' transfiguration is the event which reveals to us that Jesus is the beloved Son of God. And it is this event which lets us know in advance that Jesus is to be given the honor and glory of God. Jesus is to be given all the powers and authority of the world. This is because Jesus is the beloved Son of God, with whom God is well pleased. This is because Jesus accomplishes God's will and does what God wants.

What God wants was revealed in Moses and Elijah. Moses led the Israelites out of slavery in Egypt. He helped the people get free of the slavery of sin and serve God truly. Elijah righteously proclaimed God against the king Ahab of northern Israel and his queen Jezebel. Ahab had fallen into a pagan idolatry and walked away from God, but Elijah proclaimed the true God. The idol was Baal. Faith in Baal is more interested in the blessings of the world than the words of God. It is a representative of the worship of good fortune.

Jesus shows us the way in which Moses and Elijah truly served God. Jesus leads us out of the slavery of sins. He leads us to overcome the lies, greed, and darkness of the world. Sin means to go against God. It means to not be honest before God. It means to serve the world rather than God. It means to serve the world and its greed. That is why sin makes us continuously lie. It is because God and truth disappear before it. It is because the criteria of all sin is not God but self. This way of living based on self-centeredness is the reality of sin. The climax of this life of sin is self-righteousness and dictatorship.

When sin is at an extreme, society is lost and confused. This is because God is not included in that society. In that society, the truth and justice of God are done away with. The world covers up the truth and justice of God with its own tricks. The dictators of the world follow this path. They pretend to be smart but are truly foolish. Their eyes are blinded with greed. Jesus proclaims the truth of God to them. He proclaims the truth despite the risk of persecution and death. Jesus is the beloved Son of God, and the wicked leaders of the world will one day kneel down before God.

Jesus teaches us the way to God through His death on the Cross and his resurrection. He teaches that in Him is found the true way of life. The disciples recognize Jesus only after they experience Jesus' defeat of death and his resurrection. They come to know that Jesus is the truly beloved Son of God. Then, they take courage and proclaim Jesus as the true Lord who saves us.

The feast of the Transfiguration of the Lord today invites us to see Jesus truly, like the disciples. It also invites us to be attentive to the words of Jesus and follow His words over fear. Let us not be deceived by the words of the world, but try to follow Jesus, who is the true Lord. This will enable us to live as the truly beloved children of God with Jesus. Thereby, we can take part in the power and glory of God. We have to see Jesus truly and ask to be with Jesus to the end.

Fr. Namsil Kim
