Homily

Today is the 29th Sunday in Ordinary Time. The Church offers the mass for the Evangelization of all the nations. The proclamation of God's salvation is for all the world. Salvation is not for me only. It has to be delivered to everyone. Jesus is the very Word of salvation. God's salvation is proclaimed through the teachings of Jesus. God's salvation and Jesus' teachings are not for my own possession and me only. God's salvation and Jesus' teachings have to be delivered for everyone.

Gospel is good news. It is the good news of salvation. Evangelization is to deliver this good news to be heard and lived by. Evangelization of all the nations is to deliver this good news to everyone in the world so that they can live saved. It is to gather everyone in God, according to the will of God.

About the good news of salvation, the book of Isaiah today delivers very specifically the content of it. Fundamentally, the good news of salvation is God who teaches us the way of salvation. The good news is for God to become our true judge of nations and many peoples. We must proclaim God to be the God of all peoples. And we have to try to obey the words of God. That all the nations be obedient to the words of God is the Evangelization of all the nations.

The good news of salvation is more specifically like this. It is to beat swords into plowshares and spears into pruning hooks; One nation shall not raise the sword against another, nor shall they train for war again. And it is to walk in the light of the Lord. Evangelization of all the nations is for the whole world to intend on true peace in the light of God. To do so, it is to stay in the light of the Lord, that is, to remain in the teachings of the Lord.

"The mountain of the LORD'S house shall be established as the highest mountain and raised above the hills. All nations shall stream toward it; 'Come, let us climb the LORD'S mountain, to the house of the God of Jacob, that he may instruct us in his ways, and we may walk in his paths.'" For from Zion shall go forth instruction and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem. He shall judge between the nations, and impose terms on many peoples. They shall beat their swords into plowshares and their spears into pruning hooks; One nation shall not raise the sword against another, nor shall they train for war again. O house of Jacob, come, let us walk in the light of the LORD!"

Jesus is the excellent news of God. Jesus receives all the powers from God. Jesus, ascending to heaven, lets the disciples deliver all his teachings to all the nations in his name. Jesus' teachings are eternal. His teachings lead us to God and our salvation. Jesus leads us to God who is the source of salvation.

"All power in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, until the end of the age."

We have to proclaim Jesus who is the good news of God. We must proclaim that we can be saved from death through Jesus. We must proclaim that Jesus leads us to God. We must proclaim that Jesus' teachings are our life. We must proclaim that Jesus' teachings can get us out of war and bring peace. We must proclaim that Jesus' teachings are the true teachings to go beyond false, lie and fraud.

Likewise, proclaiming the good news is our mission. It is to be with Jesus, to follow the teachings of Jesus, and to deliver God to the world. It is said that those who deliver this good news will never be shameful. They are said to have affluent grace. Those who deliver the good news this way will be full of joy. By then, the words of God's salvation will be spread to the whole world.

However, delivering the good news is not easy. We have to hear the good news first. We have to see Jesus truly. We have to know that Jesus is the true Lord. We have to die first with Jesus and overcome death to live resurrected. The good news of salvation is of resurrection and the news of God's victory. It is to proclaim the Kingdom of God in the world. We have to proclaim God's victory to the world. We have to proclaim Jesus as the victory of God. Those who proclaim God and Jesus this way is proclaiming the good news. They live the joy of resurrection. "How beautiful are the feet of those who bring (the) good news!"

 How To Take Your Kids To Mass (4/4) Follow Up - When you leave Mass or later during the week, take time to talk about the readings, the homily and the children's behavior. Help them learn how to apply what was taught at Mass to their own lives. Revisit with them ways their behavior could have been different or commend them for a job well done. Remember in all of this that it is only for a brief season of our lives that our children will need these rules and structures in place. As the saying goes, "the days are long, but the years are short" and this time will be over before you know it. Take the time to soak in the innocent and pure faith of your children. Observe their awe and wonder at the Lord and His marvelous works. Perhaps, it will be your children that teach you the most important lessons of our faith.
 "...children cry, they are noisy, they don't stop moving. But it really irritates me when I see a child crying in church and someone says they must go out. God's voice is in a child's tears: they must never be kicked out of church." - Pope Francis
