Homily

Today is the 32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time. The Church celebrates 'Laity Sunday' today. We remember the importance and mission of the lay people who compose most of the Church. Lay people witness to God in the world and it is the life line of Church. We have to profess God as the true Lord and not the world.

Lay people must live according to the wisdom of God in the world. The Book of Wisdom today delivers the joy of those who seek wisdom. Wisdom always comes to those who want her. Having wisdom can make all our worries disappear. The important thing is the effort to gain wisdom. Wisdom is going to be with us always if we try to seek her, but we have to seek her. Those who seek wisdom witness to the life of following the words of God in the world.

"Resplendent and unfading is Wisdom, and she is readily perceived by those who love her, and found by those who seek her. She hastens to make herself known in anticipation of men's desire; he who watches for her at dawn shall not be disappointed, for he shall find her sitting by his gate. For taking thought of her is the perfection of prudence, and he who for her sake keeps vigil shall quickly be free from care; Because she makes her rounds, seeking those worthy of her, and graciously appears to them in the ways, and meets them with all solicitude."

Jesus compares the Heavenly Kingdom to wise virgins. A wise virgin prepares for a lamp, and extra oil in case of long wait to meet her bridegroom. Lamp is the life in this world. Oil is the life of the Heavenly Kingdom. Those who put their heart only in the world can never prepare for the Kingdom of Heaven and can not enter into it. Only those who prepare for oil that is the Kingdom of Heaven can enter into the Kingdom. For those who do not prepare for the Kingdom, only destruction will wait for them eventually.

Paul the apostle teaches us today how to prepare for our death. He encourages us to have hope even before death. He lets us know death is not the end and not to be sad. He teaches us to know that we can enter into the Kingdom with Jesus by believing in Jesus who died and resurrected. He lets us know God the true truth even before death and to have hope to be with Christ.

The issue of death can never be solved easily. All of us must die eventually. Before death, everything is going to be nothing. Our life has no meaning. Death leads us into despair and frustration. Death ends everything. Due to death, our lives would rather be inclined to sins and evils. We have no reason to live righteously if death is the end of one's life. The despair and horror of death force us to seek for the eternal youth and living forever herb and medication. False religions use this despair and horror of death to cheat people as if they can make people not die and satisfy their greed.

However, we Christians believe in the eternal God and put our hope in Him. We believe that the world and its death are not the end but that we can have true joy, meaning, and life in God. Because of God we care for and love this world as well. Above all, we profess that through Jesus God loves us leads us from the despair of death, and gives us blessings. It is because God resurrects Jesus from death. Finding God is seeking Wisdom. Following Jesus is walking on the way of wisdom. Finding Wisdom is preparing for the Kingdom of Heaven and entering into it. Our life can be truly happy and full of blessings. When we put our heart in the Kingdom we can live truly joyfully in the Wisdom. We can live awake with oil as well as with a lamp. We must put our heart in God and His Kingdom and not only on the world, to live wise faith lives. We must see the world in the eyes of God to be wise, and not in the eyes of the world only.

Liturgy Q&A

Do you take Holy water when you leave the Church?

Holy water is clean water that has been specially consecrated by a priest by adding salt to prevent the water from changing. It brings us grace through the mediation of the Church, but like other sacramentals, it doesn't have any magical powers; its effectiveness depends on our own heartfelt consecration.

Holy water literally means holy water, and it is used to cleanse the unclean by chasing away sinful demons and other things that interfere with holiness, but we don't take Holy water when we leave the church.

This is because the soul, when leaving the church, is already seen as having been completely washed and cleansed through the Mass.

- Deacon John Lee
