Homily

Today is the 4th Sunday in Ordinary time, and the central message is about Jesus is a man of authority. This authority expels unclean spirits, and Jesus' authority comes from holiness of God. It does not come from any earthly power and status. Only those who believe in the words of God and are faithful to the will of God can gain this authority.

Today's Deuteronomy reading talks about a true prophet. Moses is a true prophet. And those who follow Moses walk the way of a true prophet. A true prophet takes the words from God and spit it out of his mouth and delivers them to people. By doing so, they follow the will of God. Therefore going against the words of a true prophet goes against God.

On the other hand, a false prophet delivers his own words and faking it as if they are the words of God. Also, they deliver the names of other gods that are idols. God will put the false prophets to death for sure.

"I will raise for them a prophet like you from among their kin, and will put my words into his mouth; he shall tell them all that I command him. Whoever will not listen to my words which he speaks in my name, I will make him answer for it. But if a prophet presumes to speak in my name an oracle that I have not commanded him to speak, or speaks in the name of other gods, he shall die."

Gospel delivers that Jesus teaches with authority, differently from the scribes. The scribes teach the law but are considered not to have authority. Teaching the law merely as lawful words does not teach the law truly. Teaching the law truly is as possible as much as taking after the holy God us. It has to be based on the life of keeping the law and not on the lawful words only. Those who keep the words of God truly can reveal the authority of the law.

Jesus' authority is revealed by expelling an unclean spirit. It is because the holy authority of God cannot be together with unclean spirits. Before the holy authority of God, an unclean spirit cannot but be expelled. All of this is possible with the life of Jesus. We must forget that without holy life there is no authority of God. Holiness is the foundation of authority.

Paul the apostle invites us to this holy life. He wants us to serve God totally over worries about the world and family lives. He invites us to live to make the Lord happy. This is the foundation of holiness. Joyful with the Lord, living with the Lord, and being faithful to the will of God is the foundation of the holy life. And here in the holiness are seated the authority of God.

We have to ask to live wholeheartedly in the Lord as much as we can in our daily lives. We should know that being joyful with the Lord and being faithful to the words of God are blessings. Being obedient to God is the holy life, which gives us authority. This authority expels unclean spirits into our lives and lets us live in the grace, blessing, and protection of God. We should know that serving God wholeheartedly is a life of blessing.
