Homily

5th Sunday of Easter

Dear Parishioners,
 During a pilgrimage to Mary's shrines this spring, I met a couple who converted from Protestantism to Catholicism. They believe in the same God and confess Jesus Christ as their Savior, but they are unfamiliar with the Blessed Virgin Mary. In the Catholic Church, pilgrimages to holy places are familiar acts of faith, but Protestants do not have such knowledge about pilgrimages to holy places. They acknowledge Mary as Jesus Christ's mother but do not recognize her as the Mother of God and Mother of the Church. Since lack of devotion to Mary, they are not familiar with the manifestations of Mary's sanctity. Most holy places are where diligent believers shed tears, sweat, and prayers. Such places are where remarkable passion and dedication of believers were shown. Also, most holy places are where martyrs were buried. They are where the remains of saints are kept. Protestants do not show reverence and devotion to saints and their relics, so they don't have the opportunity to go on pilgrimages to the holy shrine. Since most holy places in the world have Catholic churches, there is no reason for Protestants to go on pilgrimages to holy shrines. Many fervent individuals who converted to Catholicism are deeply devoted because they embraced the strengths of Protestantism and Catholicism, which deepened their faith.

Chapter of John's Gospel tells the story of the 'Samaritan woman.' She was drawing water from a well of Jacob at noon time, and Jesus who was thirsty, asked her for a drink. The woman was very much surprised that a Jew would ask a Samaritan and on top of that woman for water. And questioned why he asked her for water? Jesus then told her "Everyone who drinks this water will be thirsty again, but whoever drinks the water I give them will never thirst. Indeed, the water I give them will become in them a spring of water welling up to eternal life." Hearing this, the woman asked Jesus for this water that would quench her thirst forever. Jesus then told her to go get her husband. The woman replied that she had no husband. Jesus, knowing her past, revealed that she had multiple husbands. The woman, acknowledging Jesus' knowledge of her past asked him about the correct place to worship. Jesus explained that true worship is not about the location but about accepting the eternal words of Jesus Christ that never leave one thirsty. True worship is not about Protestant churches or Catholic churches but about accepting Jesus Christ as the Savior who quenches eternal thirst. Even if someone converted from Protestant and became Catholic, they sometimes have to face criticism from Catholics, but if they repent, follow Jesus Christ as their Savior, and become disciples of the Lord then they are saved. The problem lies in our tendency to judge others easily based on their past. God asks us to take off our glasses of prejudice and narrowness and put on clothes of forgiveness and understanding. In recent Chinese history, there is great leader Deng Xiaoping, who led China's revolutionary economic reform and opening-up of country. Deng, who led China to become an economic powerhouse for a billion people, once said, "It doesn't matter if a cat is black or white as long as it catches mice then it's a good cat." This meant that to him it does not matter whether it's communism or democracy if it lifts China out of poverty. Through Deng's reforms and openness, China became the world's factory and grew into an economic powerhouse. Today's reading mentions Saul, who persecuted the just-born Jerusalem church. However, after encountering Jesus on the road to Damascus, he became an apostle for Gentiles. Jesus transformed Saul, who persecuted the church, into a tool for proclaiming the Gospel to the diaspora and none Jews. The church accepted Saul as part of the community, and Saul became Paul. Paul established the doctrines and theology of the early church. Paul stated that true worship is not limited to Jerusalem but wherever the Gospel of the Lord is proclaimed.

In today's Gospel Jesus says, "I am the true vine, and my Father is the gardener. He cuts off every branch in me that bears no fruit, while every branch that does bear fruit, he prunes so that it will be even more fruitful. You are already clean because of the words I have spoken to you. Remain in me, as I also remain in you. No branch can bear fruit by itself; it must remain in the vine. Neither can you bear fruit unless you remain in me. I am the vine; you are the branches. If you remain in me and I in you, you will bear much fruit: apart from me, you can do nothing. This is to my Father's glory, that you bear much fruit, showing yourselves to be my disciples." Who will become a fruitful branch? It's someone who believes in Jesus Christ as their Savior, even if they converted from another faith or had past sins. It's someone who practices the teachings of Jesus Christ in both words and actions. "My children, let us not love with words or speech but with actions and truth." And this is his command: to believe in the name of his Son, Jesus Christ, and to love one another as he commanded us. The one who keeps God's commands alive.
