Homily

Dear Parishioners,
 There are rosary prayers and processions held every day in the Marian Shrine of Fatima and Lourdes, since pilgrims come from various countries, it is essential to pray in different languages. In those holy places, rosary prayers are conducted based on requests from pilgrims. During a recent pilgrimage, there was an opportunity to pray rosary in Korean. In Fatima, we meditated on the Glorious Mysteries, and at Lourdes we reflected on the Joyful Mysteries. Although we started in Korean, all other people joined in their own languages. It didn't feel awkward but natural. It seems through prayer we became one despite many different languages. The early church could overcome language barriers through the power of the Holy Spirit. In God's love language, skin color, social status, sex, and age are not obstacles at all. Jesus also emphasized this, saying, "God sends sunshine to both the good and the evil." Indeed, with a heart of goodness, beautiful flowers can bloom even in muddy ponds, while thorns can grow in beautiful rose fields with a wicked heart. It would be wonderful if love bloomed in homes and churches through the intercession of our Blessed Mother. I want to summarize the themes of the Gospel of the past five weeks of the Easter season. The theme of the 1st Sunday of Easter was 'longing.' Mary Magdalene longed to see Jesus again and searched for Him at the tomb. Jesus, understanding her longing, called her name, and she was the first person to see the Risen Lord. A longing also drove my journey to St. Andrea Kim Parish of Dallas. I applied for a permanent residency card and received it two years ago. After reporting this fact to my bishop in Seoul, he assigned me to St. Andrea Kim. Your presence at this Mass is also driven by a longing to meet the Lord. The theme of the 2nd Sunday of Easter was 'faith.' Thomas said, 'Unless I see the nail marks in his hands and put my finger where the nails were, and put my hand into his side, I will not believe.' Jesus said to him, 'Because you have seen me, you have believed; blessed are those who have not seen and yet have believed.' The resurrection of Jesus is not about proof and facts but faith and mystery. When I came here on February 14th, you didn't ask me for documents because the Dallas Diocese and Seoul Archdiocese recognized me. The theme of the 3rd Sunday was 'The Word.' In Barcelona, there is the famous Sagrada Familia Cathedral which was designed and built by Antoni Gaudí. At the cathedral's main Door of Birth and a Door of Suffering, soon to be completed with a Door of Glory. The main doors of the cathedral have a name: the Door of Birth, the Door of Suffering, and the soon-to-be-completed Door of Glory. At the Door of Suffering, there is an image of Jesus on the cross. Instead of a crown of thorns, Jesus has a Bible on his head, signifying that all His thoughts and deeds are in the Scriptures. On the road to Emmaus, the disciples listened to Jesus' explanation of the Scriptures. Their hearts burned within them as Jesus shared the Scriptures. My favorite Scripture passage is Psalm 126; 'Those who sow with tears will reap with songs of joy.'; 'Those who stay close to the Word will become witnesses of the resurrection wherever they are. The theme of the 4th Sunday of Easter was 'The Good Shepherd.' Jesus said, 'The good shepherd knows his sheep and his sheep know him; he protects them from wild beasts and lays down his life for them.' Jesus, the Good Shepherd, became human. He listened to the cries of the blind, the lepers, and the paralyzed. He listened to the voices of foreigners and centurions. Jesus fed five thousand, washed his disciples' feet, and sacrificed his life on the cross to save us. He showed us the way to follow him. The theme of the 5th Sunday was 'relationships.' Jesus spoke of the parable of the vine and branches. He said, 'If you remain in me and I in you, you will bear much fruit; apart from me, you can do nothing.; Just like appliances such as washing machines, refrigerators, and televisions operate when connected to power, our faith allows us to bear fruit when connected to the love of Jesus Christ. Our faith communities are in relationships with other parish communities. Faith organizations are in relationships with the faith community. Priests and religious are in relationships with ministries. The center of our relationships is revealed through the Eucharistic celebration. What do you think is the theme of the 6th Sunday? Even though you have not read or listened to today's Scripture, you can easily guess. That's right, today's theme is 'love.' St. Paul said, 'If I have not love, I am nothing. Even if I speak the tongues of men and angels but have no love, I am only a resounding gong or a clanging cymbal. Love is patient, love is kind, it does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud. 'This love comes from God, and it's the love that Jesus showed us.' "I give you a new commandment: love one another as I have loved you."
