Homily

12th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Dear Parishioners, how are you? There is a saying, "This too shall pass." May was a busy month with many events: Marian Night, First Holy Communion, Youth Music Concert, Regional Mass, Pentecost Praise Night, Ordination Mass, 17th Men's Cursillo of the Central and Southern Regions, Confirmation, Sunday School Summer Camp, and Fort Worth Parish Sunday Mass. The priest from Fort Worth Parish went to Korea for a month to extend his visa, and I had to help with their Masses. Some days had overlapping events. The First Holy Communion and the Youth Music Concert were on the same day, and the Cursillo and Confirmation happened on the same day. May was so busy and action-packed that I didn't know how time passed. Among the various events, some stand out such as the Ordination Mass. While the ordination in Korea is orderly and almost military-like, it was more natural in the US. During the ordination, all the diocese priests embraced the new priests. Senior priests offered congratulations with hugs, and the new priests greeted them with wide smiles, and it was very brotherly and loving. Another memorable event was the Pentecost Praise Night. In a short time, the music volunteers prepared the event and songs, creating a moment filled with the Holy Spirit. Just as the kingdom of God is like finding a treasure hidden in a field, our parish has talented individuals. I thought it would be wonderful if the 'Laudate' praise team could prepare a music retreat in near future.

Today's Gospel tells the story of 'Jesus Calming the Storm.' The disciples were crossing the lake with Jesus when a severe storm arose, and the boat was violently tossed. The disciples feared the boat might capsize. Meanwhile, Jesus was sleeping peacefully. The disciples woke Him, and Jesus calmed the storm. He then said to them, "Why are you afraid? Do you still have no faith?" This story reminds me of an experience I had. In 1998, 26 years ago, my sister, a nun, was at Baengnyeongdo Church, and the priest there was my classmate. To visit both, I took a boat from Yeonan Pier to Baengnyeongdo. When we reached a point called 'Imdangsoh,' the captain announced that the storm had worsened, but it was better to proceed to Baengnyeongdo than to turn back. As the storm intensified, people began to get seasick. Even the robust Marines got seasick, and for the first time in my life, I experienced severe seasickness. While struggling and frequently visiting the restroom, I noticed that most Baengnyeongdo residents were unaffected. As the storm grew fiercer, they lay down on the floor. Following their lead, I lay down and found surprisingly, that my stomach felt better. There's a saying, "Do not fan the flames in a burning house." Storms of greed, envy, jealousy, hatred, and desire often blow within our hearts. During such times, it's good to lay everything down and lie down like Jesus. Then the storm will pass, and peace will come to our hearts eventually and we can meet God in silence. In today's second reading, St. Paul says, "If anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation. The old has passed away; behold, the new has come." May 2024 has passed. Almost all 31 squares on the calendar are filled. If we spend those 31 days with Christ, those days will be upgraded in the kingdom of God. If we filled them with our desires and will, they would be considered old. Oldness is not defined by time. Likewise, newness is not defined by time. Time spent with Christ is always new. Time filled with our desires and greed is always old. God makes it rain and shine equally on both the good and the evil. God has given us 30 empty squares in June. In seminary, they taught that there are three virtues a priest needs. To proclaim God's word, wisdom to read and discern the signs of the times is necessary. As the saying goes, "A healthy mind in a healthy body," regular meals and consistent exercise are needed. Prayer is essential for seeking God's righteousness and will, not the world's things. A praying priest, a studying priest, and a healthy priest will always fill the 30 days with new things. The first half of 2024 has already passed. If we fill the past days with old things, let us fill the remaining days with new things with Christ. "The love of Christ compels us, for we are convinced that one died for all, and therefore all died. If anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation. The old has passed away; behold, the new has come."

The Devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus

The devotion began in the 1670s, when Jesus appeared multiple times to St. Margaret Mary Alacoque, a Visitation nun in France. Through these visions, He told her how He wished to be honored with the symbol of His heart, asking for the faithful to make amends for any wrongdoing they had done, frequently take Communion, and observe the Holy Hour. In 1856, the devotion was added to the church calendar by Pope Pius IX.

St. Margaret Mary described her experience of the Lord: "My divine Heart is so passionately fond of the human race and of you, in particular, that it cannot keep back the pent-up flames of its burning charity any longer. They must burst out through you and reveal my Heart to the world, so as to enrich mankind with my treasures." Following this revelation, Jesus united her heart with His in a fusion of mystical love and joy.
