Homily

Fourth Sunday of Easter (Vocations Sunday)

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ, "What is the snack you remember most from your childhood?" For me, it's Choco Pie and Shrimp Crackers. Orion's Choco Pie has been on the market since April 1974. In Korea, it is considered a national snack and a hallmark product representing the confectionery industry. When people think of Orion, Choco Pie is usually the first thing that comes to mind. Orion announced that since its launch, cumulative sales have exceeded 50 billion units and total revenue has surpassed 8 trillion won. I also have memories of eating Choco Pie during my military service. It has been a beloved brand for over 51 years. Nongshim's Shrimp Crackers were introduced in December 1971. I still remember the catchy jingle from its commercial: "Hands reach for it, hands reach for it / Hands reach for Shrimp Crackers / Children's hands, adults' hands, always reaching for more / Anytime, anywhere, delicious Shrimp Crackers / Enjoyed by everyone, Nongshim Shrimp Crackers!" As of 2023, cumulative sales of Shrimp Crackers have reached 8.53 billion bags, with total revenue of 2.34 trillion won. It has been a steady-selling brand for over 54 years. Though people's tastes may change, these snacks have survived because they were made with sincerity and a clear philosophy. At this point, a thought naturally arises: "If a snack can be loved for so long, what about our faith?"

How has our Catholic faith—the Church founded by Jesus—survived and flourished until now? Two thousand years ago, Jesus established the Church with twelve apostles. He sent them to heal the sick, cast out demons, and proclaim the Kingdom of God. Though His words first echoed along the shores of the Sea of Galilee, today there are over 1.389 billion Catholics across the world. What a vast and enduring "brand" this is! The Korean Catholic Church began in 1784, nearly 240 years ago. Our ancestors persevered in faith even without priests, churches, or the celebration of Mass. They left their hometowns, lost their possessions, and even gave their lives under persecution. According to statistics, there are now over 5.97 million Catholics in Korea, with 5,721 clergy, including 2 cardinals and 40 bishops. This growth was made possible by the sacrifices and dedication of the 103 canonized saints and 124 beatified martyrs, as well as the testimony of countless unnamed martyrs. Thanks to their witness, we can now celebrate Mass peacefully in our churches. They are the true "long-lasting brands" of faith. Faith is not about marketing, but it moves hearts, inspires sacrifices, and transforms the world.

Today is Vocations Sunday. God calls each of us in different ways—some to the priesthood, some to religious life, and others to live as parents, teachers, nurses, and caregivers. Yet all vocations share a common feature: they are lives lived for others, not for oneself. Choco Pie and Shrimp Crackers were also loved because they were created with care for those who would enjoy them. In the same way, a vocation is a courageous and loving response to live not for oneself, but for others. That is why Jesus says, "I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep." Today's world often emphasizes "choices for myself." But a truly meaningful life blossoms from choices made for others. American writer George Eliot said, "The people who quietly change the world may not be recorded in history books, but thanks to their goodness, we are able to breathe and live today."

On this Vocations Sunday, let us remember and honor those who have responded to God's quiet call. Hands may reach for Choco Pie and Shrimp Crackers, but our hearts must reach for God's call. A vocation is the response to God's invitation, offering our one and only life for the most meaningful path. That is a vocation. Today, let us pause and reflect on the calling we have received, asking: "Lord, where are You calling me to go?" And may we respond: "Speak, Lord, for Your servant is listening." Today, Jesus also says to us, "My sheep hear my voice; I know them, and they follow me. I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish. No one will snatch them out of my hand."
