Homily

Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe (Bible Week)

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,
During my vacation, I celebrated a family Mass. Two years ago, my uncle and his wife and my maternal uncle and his wife joined us. This year, because of old age and illness, they could not come. Instead, a new member of the family joined us — the wife of my nephew, who was married last year. Just as the two-thousand-year history of the Church continues, the faith in my family has also been handed down for six generations. I believe that history is not a marathon run alone but a relay we run together, handing the baton of faith from one generation to the next. My uncle reminds me of the Apostle Peter. When Jesus asked His disciples, "Who do you say that I am?" Peter replied, "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God." Like Peter, my uncle's life has always centered on faith. He encouraged me greatly in my vocation to the priesthood. I still remember his words clearly: "There are only two things we can pass on to our children — our family name, Cho of Hanyang, and our Catholic faith." From him I learned the habit of rising early each morning to pray.

My maternal uncle reminds me of the Apostle Paul. Raised in a traditional Confucian home, he was not baptized for many years, though he respected that his sister — my mother — had become a woman of faith through marriage. When I was ordained, my grandmother received the baptismal name Maria, and my grandfather received the name Joseph. I celebrated both of their funeral Masses. Only then did my uncle ask for baptism. Although he came to faith later in life, he lived it with deep sincerity. He served faithfully in the parish council and the Legion of Mary. When I once gave a lecture at his parish, he was overjoyed. Because he began his journey late, he served with remarkable zeal. He spoke proudly of his parish priest's virtues, and when he saw weakness, he prayed silently. Before he passed away, he told me that he wanted a Mass to be celebrated at our family burial ground. I gladly offered that Mass, and he prayed fervently that the souls of our ancestors might rest eternally in the peace of God.

Today we celebrate Christ the King. Who, then, is this King we honor? He possessed authority, yet He was never authoritarian. He had great power, yet never abused it. Though worthy to be served, He chose instead to serve. He washed the feet of His disciples. He carried the cross for our sake. He prayed through the night until His sweat became like drops of blood. He reached out to lepers, paralytics, the blind, tax collectors, and prostitutes — healing and comforting them. His authority was born of humility. His strength came from love. He had no wealth, no organization, no worldly backing, yet through sacrifice, service, and prayer, He faced the powers of the world — and He triumphed. That is why we call Him our Savior and our King. When He hung upon the Cross, two criminals were crucified beside Him. One did not repent, but the other turned to Jesus and said, "Jesus, remember me when You come into Your kingdom." Jesus replied, "Truly I tell you, today you will be with Me in paradise."

The learned scholars of the Law did not recognize Jesus. The rulers of nations did not recognize Him. Even His disciples did not fully understand Him. The Roman governor did not recognize Him. Jesus could not be known through knowledge, power, or authority. Who, then, recognized Him? The shepherds who kept watch through the night knew of His birth. The blind man who regained his sight recognized Him. Zacchaeus the tax collector recognized Him. Mary Magdalene recognized Him. The centurion at the Cross recognized Him. The poor, the hungry, and the sick recognized Him. Those who repented and humbled themselves recognized Him. Those who longed for God, who prayed with perseverance, who stayed spiritually awake, and who shared what they had — they alone could see the Lord who is greater than the universe itself.

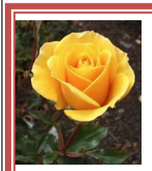

Life, they say, is like a drop of dew on the tip of a leaf — here in the morning and gone by evening. It is like a wildflower that blooms at dawn and withers by dusk. It is like a small boat drifting upon a vast sea of suffering. Yet when we believe in our Savior Jesus Christ, even the dew becomes a radiant jewel, the fading flower takes on a heavenly fragrance, and the small boat upon the stormy sea sails courageously toward its destination.
"His kingdom is a kingdom of truth and life, a kingdom of holiness and grace, a kingdom of justice, love, and peace."

Pastor Je Hyoung Cho
