강론

The Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity (Youth Sunday)

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ, Today is the last day of May. During this month, our parish was blessed with many meaningful events. On May 2, we celebrated the May Crowning of the Blessed Virgin Mary. We offered our love and devotion to our Blessed Mother and prayed that, through her intercession, our parish community might be spiritually enriched. On May 3, we held the 2nd Parish Contemporary Sacred Music Festival. Last year, the West Plano district won first place with the song "I Am a Flower." This year, the Ullim Ensemble won first place with the song "Life." On May 10, we celebrated Mother's Day. As we did last year, we sang "Mother's Grace," a beloved Korean song honoring mothers. May 5 also marked the fifteenth anniversary of my father's passing, and I prayed that my parents may enjoy eternal life in heaven. On May 16, the Multicultural Mass was celebrated at St. Ann Parish. From our parish, the Samulnori team and the K-pop dance team participated. On May 17, we held the 8th Youth Concert. It is always a joy to witness the dreams and talents of our young people. On May 24, we celebrated the Sacrament of Confirmation. Indeed, this month of May was filled with the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit. I sincerely thank the Parish Council and all the volunteers whose dedication and service made these events possible.

At the beginning of Mass, the priest greets the faithful with these words: "The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all." And the faithful respond: "And with your spirit." What is the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ? It is grace that the Son of God became man. It is grace that those who believe in and follow the Son of God may receive eternal life. Jesus came into the world proclaiming that the Kingdom of God was near, and He called all people to repentance and faith in the Gospel. What is the Kingdom of God? It is where God's righteousness and God's will are fulfilled. What is the Gospel? The Kingdom of God proclaimed by Jesus is the Gospel. The words and signs that Jesus showed us are the Gospel. Jesus reveals Himself as the one who leads us to the Father, the fullness of truth, and the source of life. (John 14:6) He healed the sick and drove out demons. He died on the Cross and was buried, but on the third day He rose again. Jesus Christ, who died and rose from the dead, is the Gospel. If there were no Resurrection of Jesus Christ, our faith would be in vain. The Resurrection of Jesus Christ is the assurance of our own resurrection.

What is the love of God? By that love, God created the universe and all creation. By that love, God created human beings in His own image and likeness. God gave humanity emotion, reason, and intellect. Created in the image of God, human beings have built culture and civilization. Psalm 8 beautifully proclaims that, although human beings are small before the vastness of the heavens, God remembers them, cares for them, crowns them with glory and honor, and entrusts creation to their care. The prophet Isaiah also expresses God's love by reminding us that even if a mother were to forget her child, God will never forget His people. And because God so loved the world, He sent us His beloved Son, Jesus Christ. What is the communion of the Holy Spirit? The Acts of the Apostles describes the coming of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost. The disciples were gathered together in one place when the Holy Spirit came upon them like a mighty wind and tongues of fire. Filled with the Holy Spirit, they began to speak in different languages, according to the gift given to them by the Spirit.

The communion of the Holy Spirit is also revealed through many different gifts. Saint Paul teaches that the gifts of the Spirit are given differently to each person according to God's grace. Some receive the gift of prophecy, some the gift of service, some the gift of teaching, and others the gift of encouragement. Those who give are called to do so with sincerity; those who lead, with diligence; and those who show mercy, with joy. In this way, Saint Paul reminds us that although the gifts are many and diverse, they are all given by God to build up and strengthen the community. To live faithfully according to the gifts we have received is the calling of every disciple of Christ. Today we celebrate the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity. May the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with all of you.
